6 Intellectual Property Laws Amendment (Productivity Commission Response Part 1 and Other Measures) Bill 2017
Schedule 1—Responses to the Productivity Commission

Part 1—Parallel importation

Copyright Act 1968

1 Section 198A

Repeal the section.

Trade Marks Act 1995

2 After section 122

Insert:

122A International exhaustion of registered trade mark in relation to goods

(1) In spite of section 120, a person who uses a registered trade mark in relation to goods does not infringe the trade mark if:

(a) the goods are:

(i) similar to goods in respect of which the trade mark is registered; or

(ii) closely related to services in respect of which the trade mark is registered; and

(b) the goods have been put on the market in Australia or a foreign country; and

(c) at the time of use, it was reasonable for the person to assume the trade mark had been applied to, or in relation to, the goods by, or with the consent of, a person who was, at the time of the application or consent (as the case may be):

(i) the registered owner of the trade mark; or

(ii) an authorised user of the trade mark; or

(iii) a person authorised to use the trade mark by a person mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii), or with significant

Part 1 Parallel importation

1 influence over the use of the trade mark by such a 2 person; or 3 (iv) an associated entity (within the meaning of the 4 Corporations Act 2001) of a person mentioned in 5 subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii).

Note: For goods that are similar, see subsection 14(1).

(2) A reference in paragraph (1)(c) to consent to the application of a 3 trade mark to, or in relation to, goods includes, without limitation, 4 a reference to:
5 (a) consent subject to a condition (for example, a condition that 6 the goods are to be sold only in a foreign country); and 7 (b) consent that can be reasonably inferred from the conduct of a 8 person mentioned in subparagraph (1)(c)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv).

(3) In determining whether the first-mentioned person in 5 subparagraph (1)(c)(iii) was authorised to use the trade mark or had 6 significant influence over its use, disregard how that authority or 7 influence arose, for example:
8 (a) whether it arose directly or indirectly; or 9 (b) whether it arose by way of proprietary interest, contract,
10 arrangement, understanding, a combination of those things,
11 or otherwise.

3 Section 123 (heading)

123 Services to which registered trade mark has been applied by or 12 with consent of registered owner

(2) The amendments of the Trade Marks Act 1995 made by this Part apply in relation to an action for the infringement of a trade mark begun on or after the commencement of this item, even if the infringement of the trade mark is alleged to have occurred before that commencement.
Part 2—PBR in essentially derived varieties

Division 1—Amendments

Plant Breeder’s Rights Act 1994

7 Subsection 3(1)

Insert:

commercial-in-confidence has the meaning given by subsection 41B(6).

essentially derived, in relation to a plant variety, has the meaning given by section 4.

8 Subsection 3(1) (at the end of the definition of grantee)

Add:

Note: For declarations of essential derivation, see sections 40 and 41D.

12 Section 12

Repeal the section, substitute:
12 Extension of PBR to cover essentially derived varieties

Subject to section 23 (exhaustion of PBR), if PBR is granted in a plant variety (the initial variety), and a declaration is made that another plant variety is essentially derived from the initial variety, the right granted in the initial variety extends, with effect from the date of declaration, to that other plant variety.

40 Essential derivation for PBR-protected varieties—declaration

18 At the end of subsection 40(1)

Add:

Note 1: If the breeder of the second variety has not applied for, or been granted, PBR in the second variety, the grantee of PBR in the initial variety may apply under section 41A for a declaration that the second variety is essentially derived from the initial variety.

Note 2: If an application for PBR in the second variety is made after an application is made under section 41A in relation to that variety, the application under section 41A may be treated as if it were an application under this section (see section 41F).

19 Subsection 40(12)
After “a declaration”, insert “under this section”.

20 At the end of section 40 (before the note)

25 At the end of Part 3
Add:

41A Essential derivation for non-PBR-protected second varieties—application for declaration

Circumstances in which application may be made

(1) The grantee of PBR in a plant variety (the initial variety) may apply in writing to the Registrar for a declaration under section 41D that another variety (the second variety) is essentially derived from the initial variety if:
(a) PBR has not been applied for, or granted, in the second variety; and
(b) the grantee of PBR in the initial variety is satisfied that the second variety is essentially derived from the initial variety; and
(c) the initial variety has not itself been declared (under section 40 or 41D) to be essentially derived from another variety in which PBR has been granted.

Note: Before making the application, the grantee must give notice of the application to the person reasonably believed to be the breeder of the second variety (see section 41B).

Content of application

(2) The application must:
(a) be in the approved form; and
(b) be accompanied by such fee (if any) as is prescribed by the regulations in respect of the application.

(3) An application must contain:
(a) such information as is required by the form that is relevant to establishing, on the balance of probabilities, that the second variety is:
   (i) essentially derived from the initial variety; and
   (ii) a registrable plant variety within the meaning of section 43; and
(b) evidence, in an approved form, that the applicant has complied with subsection 41B(1), or that the applicant cannot comply with that subsection despite taking reasonable steps to do so.

Note: Subsection 41B(1) requires the applicant to give the breeder of the second variety notice of the application.

41B Essential derivation for non-PBR-protected varieties—notice and publication of applications

Notice by applicant to second variety breeder

(1) An applicant under section 41A for a declaration under section 41D that a plant variety (the second variety) is essentially derived from another plant variety must, before applying, give the person the applicant reasonably believes to be the breeder of the second variety written notice of the application including:
(a) a copy of the application; and
(b) any information about the applicant and the application, and any related information, prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.

(2) The Registrar must refuse to consider an application under section 41A if satisfied that the applicant has failed to comply with subsection (1) of this section, unless the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant, after taking reasonable steps, cannot comply with that subsection.

Note: A decision under this subsection is reviewable by the AAT under section 77.

Publication of notification of application

(3) As soon as practicable after an application under section 41A is made, the Registrar must publish a notification of the application in the Plant Varieties Journal including information about the applicant and the application, and any related information, prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this subsection.

(4) At any time or times before making a decision on the application, the Registrar may publish further notification of the application in the Plant Varieties Journal, including information (or updated information) about the matters prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of subsection (3).

(5) However, the Registrar must not publish any information in a notification under subsection (3) or (4) if the Registrar is satisfied that the information is commercial-in-confidence.

Note: A decision not to publish information for this reason is reviewable by the AAT under section 77.

(6) Information is commercial-in-confidence if the applicant demonstrates to the Registrar that:
(a) release of the information would cause competitive detriment to the applicant; and
(b) the information is not in the public domain; and
(c) the information is not required to be disclosed under another Australian law; and
(d) the information is not readily discoverable.

41C Essential derivation for non-PBR-protected varieties—opportunity to be heard

Opportunity to be heard for interested persons

(1) Before making a decision in relation to an application under section 41A for a declaration under section 41D that a plant variety (the second variety) is essentially derived from another plant variety, the Registrar must give an opportunity to be heard under this section to a person (an interested person) claiming:
(a) to be the breeder of the second variety; or
(b) to have another interest in the second variety.

(2) Subsection (1) only applies if, within 2 months after notification of the application is last published in the Plant Varieties Journal, the interested person gives the Registrar an address for service in Australia or New Zealand.

Information given in accordance with the opportunity to be heard

(3) For the purposes of section 41D, information is given by an interested person in accordance with the person’s opportunity to be heard if the information is given in accordance with regulations prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

(4) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (3) may, without limiting that subsection, include reasonable requirements in relation to the following:
(a) the giving of written information at the request of the Registrar;
(b) the giving of oral information at a hearing convened by the Registrar;
(c) when, where and in what circumstances such a hearing may be convened;
(d) the practice and procedure for any such hearings, including provision for the Registrar to determine such practice and procedure (whether generally or in relation to a particular hearing);
(c) the payment of any fees that are prescribed by the regulations in relation to the opportunity to be heard.

Interested person declines the opportunity to be heard

(5) For the purposes of section 41D, an interested person declines the opportunity to be heard if the person:
(a) gives the Registrar notice that the person does not want to be heard; or
(b) fails to give any information in accordance with the person’s opportunity to be heard under subsection (3).

41D Essential derivation for non-PBR-protected varieties—declaration

Making the decision

(1) On an application under section 41A for a declaration under this section that a plant variety (the second variety) is essentially derived from another plant variety (the initial variety), the Registrar may:
(a) declare in writing that the second variety is essentially derived from the initial variety; or
(b) refuse to make such a declaration.

Note 1: A decision under this section is reviewable by the AAT under section 77.

Note 2: The Registrar must refuse to make a declaration under this section if the applicant fails to comply with a requirement under paragraph 41E(3)(a) in relation to a test growing.

Note 3: The Registrar must not make a decision under this section if an application for PBR in the second variety is made under section 24 (see section 41F).

(2) The Registrar must make a declaration under subsection (1) if, and only if:
(a) he or she is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the second variety is:
(i) essentially derived from the initial variety; and
(ii) a registrable plant variety within the meaning of section 43; and
(b) the initial variety is not itself declared (under section 40 or this section) to be essentially derived from another plant variety.

(3) In deciding whether to make a declaration under subsection (1), the Registrar must consider the following:

(a) the information in the application;
(b) any information given by an interested person in accordance with the person’s opportunity to be heard under subsection 41C(3);
(c) any information obtained in a test growing conducted in accordance with section 41E;
(d) any other relevant information.

Note: The opportunity to be heard under section 41C only extends to persons who give the Registrar an address for service in Australia or New Zealand within 2 months after notification of the application is last published in the Plant Varieties Journal (see subsection 41C(2)).

(4) For the purposes of making the decision, the Registrar may draw an inference that is unfavourable to the interests of an interested person (within the meaning of section 41C) if the person:

(a) has not given the Registrar an address for service in accordance with subsection 41C(2); or
(b) declines the opportunity to be heard under subsection 41C(5).

Time for making decision

(5) The Registrar must not make a decision in relation to the application before:

(a) the day that is 2 months after the day the latest notice in relation to the application is published under subsection 41B(3) or (4); or
(b) if any interested person gives the Registrar an address for service in accordance with subsection 41C(2) within the period mentioned in paragraph (a)—the earlier of:

(i) the latest time the person may give the Registrar information in accordance with the person’s opportunity to be heard under subsection 41C(3); and
Schedule 1  Responses to the Productivity Commission

Part 2  PBR in essentially derived varieties

(ii) the time (if any) the person declines the opportunity to be heard by giving notice to the Registrar under paragraph 41C(5)(a).

Notification of decision

(6) If the Registrar makes a decision under subsection (1), the Registrar must give notification of the decision to:

(a) the applicant; and

(b) any interested person who has given the Registrar an address for service in accordance with subsection 41C(2).

(7) A notification under subsection (6) must include:

(a) a statement of reasons for the decision; and

(b) a statement to the effect that, subject to the AAT Act, application may be made to the AAT for review of the decision to which the notice relates by or on behalf of a person or persons whose interests are affected by the decision.

Effect of declaration—reasonable public access

(8) While a declaration under this section that the second variety is essentially derived from the initial variety remains in force, section 19 applies in relation to the second variety as if the reference in subsection 19(4) to 2 years after the grant of PBR were a reference to 2 years after the declaration was made.

Note: Section 19 requires the grantee of PBR in a plant variety to take reasonable steps to ensure reasonable public access to the plant variety.

41E  Essential derivation for non-PBR-protected varieties—test growing

(1) For the purposes of considering an application under section 41A for a declaration under section 41D that a plant variety (the second variety) is essentially derived from another plant variety (the initial variety), the Registrar may conduct a test growing or further test growing to determine whether, on the balance of probabilities, the second variety is:

(a) essentially derived from the initial variety; and
(b) a registrable plant variety within the meaning of section 43.

Note: A decision under this section is reviewable by the AAT under section 77.

(2) The Registrar must give notification of a decision to conduct a test growing to:
(a) the grantee of PBR in the initial variety; and
(b) each interested person (within the meaning of section 41C) who has given the Registrar an address for service in accordance with subsection 41C(2).

(3) To enable the Registrar to arrange a test growing, the notification must require:
(a) the grantee of PBR in the initial variety, within a reasonable period specified in the notification, to supply the Registrar with sufficient plants or sufficient propagating material of plants of the initial variety, and with any necessary information; and
(b) each interested person in relation to the second variety, within a reasonable period specified in the notification, to supply the Registrar with sufficient plants or sufficient propagating material of plants of the second variety, and with any necessary information.

(4) The notification must include a statement of the effect of subsections (5) to (8).

(5) Despite subsection 41D(2), the Registrar must, under paragraph 41D(1)(b), refuse to make the declaration applied for if the grantee of PBR in the initial variety fails to comply with a requirement under paragraph (3)(a) of this section.

(6) For the purposes of making a decision under subsection 41D(1) in relation to the application, the Registrar may draw an inference that is unfavourable to the interests of an interested person (within the meaning of section 41C) if the interested person fails to comply with a requirement under paragraph (3)(b) of this section.

(7) After completion of the test growing, the Registrar must ensure that any propagating material of a variety used in, or resulting from, the test growing that is capable of being transported is delivered to the person by whom propagating material of that variety was supplied for the purpose of the test growing.

(8) The grantee of the PBR in the first variety must pay all costs associated with the test growing.

41F Essential derivation for non-PBR-protected varieties—application lodged for PBR in second variety

Decision to treat application under section 41A as an application under section 40

(1) The Registrar must decide to treat an application under section 41A for a declaration under section 41D that a plant variety (the second variety) is essentially derived from another variety (the initial variety) as an application under section 40 in relation to those plant varieties if:
(a) an application for PBR in a plant variety (the PBR application) is made under section 24; and (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the plant variety in relation to which the PBR application is made is the same as the second variety.
